

The Harvard Alumni for Global Women's Empowerment (GlobalWE), the Center for Public Interest Careers (CPIC) at Harvard College and the Office of Career Services (OCS) at Harvard University extend our warmest welcome to the attendees of the 2018 Women's Empowerment Expo!

Below, you'll find brief descriptions and contact information for each of the 20+ organizations represented at this year's Expo. We hope you enjoy familiarizing yourself with the work of these organizations. Please note that while the Expo sponsors reached out to a wide-range of organizations to participate, we have not worked with all of the registered organizations in the past and cannot guarantee or endorse the work of specific organizations. Attendees are responsible for exercising their own due diligence if making a commitment to a particular organization.

HarassMap

HarassMap is based on the idea that if more people start taking action when sexual harassment happens in their presence, we can end this epidemic together. We support individuals and institutions to stand up to sexual harassment before or when they see it happen. By taking a collective stand against sexual harassment, re-establishing social consequences for harassers – and making role models of people who stand up to them – we believe that harassers can be deterred from harassing again.
